

STABILITY PACT FOR SOUTH EASTERN EUROPE

Current situation, Perspectives and Challenges

Henny J. van der Graaf

Brigadier General RNA (ret)

Co-chair Defence Conversion Taskforce

History Stability Pact

- initiated by the EU in 1999
- support long term conflict prevention strategy in the field of security, democracy, respect human rights, economic prosperity

Partners

- SEE countries
- EU member states
- European Commission
- Canada, Japan, Norway, Netherlands, Russia, Switzerland, Turkey, United States
- UN, OSCE, Council of Europe, UNHCR, OECD, NATO
- International Financial Institutions

Partnership with regional initiatives

- Black sea Economic Co-operation
- Central European Initiative
- South East European Co-operation Initiative
- South East Europe Co-operation Process

Stability Pact for SEE

Table 1

Democracy & Human Rights

Taskforces

- media
- education/youth
- local democracy
- parliamentary cooperation
- gender issues

Table 2

Economic reconstruction

Taskforces

- * regional infrastructure
- * energy
- * private sector
- * environment
- * sava basin initiative
- * social cohesion initiative
- * housing & urban management initiative
- * enterprise development and employment generation

Table 3

Security

Taskforces

- * Defence conversion initiative
- * Disaster preparedness/prevention initiative
- * anti-corruption initiative
- * migration/asylum, refugees
- * police reform
- * border management
- * security sector reform inventory

RACVIAC

SEESAC

seci

Stability Pact Defence Conversion Initiative

Taskforce Defence Conversion

Co-chair

NATO

Stability Pact

expert group
R&R

expert group base
conversion

osce

iom

undp

WB

NGO's/Institutes

DCAF

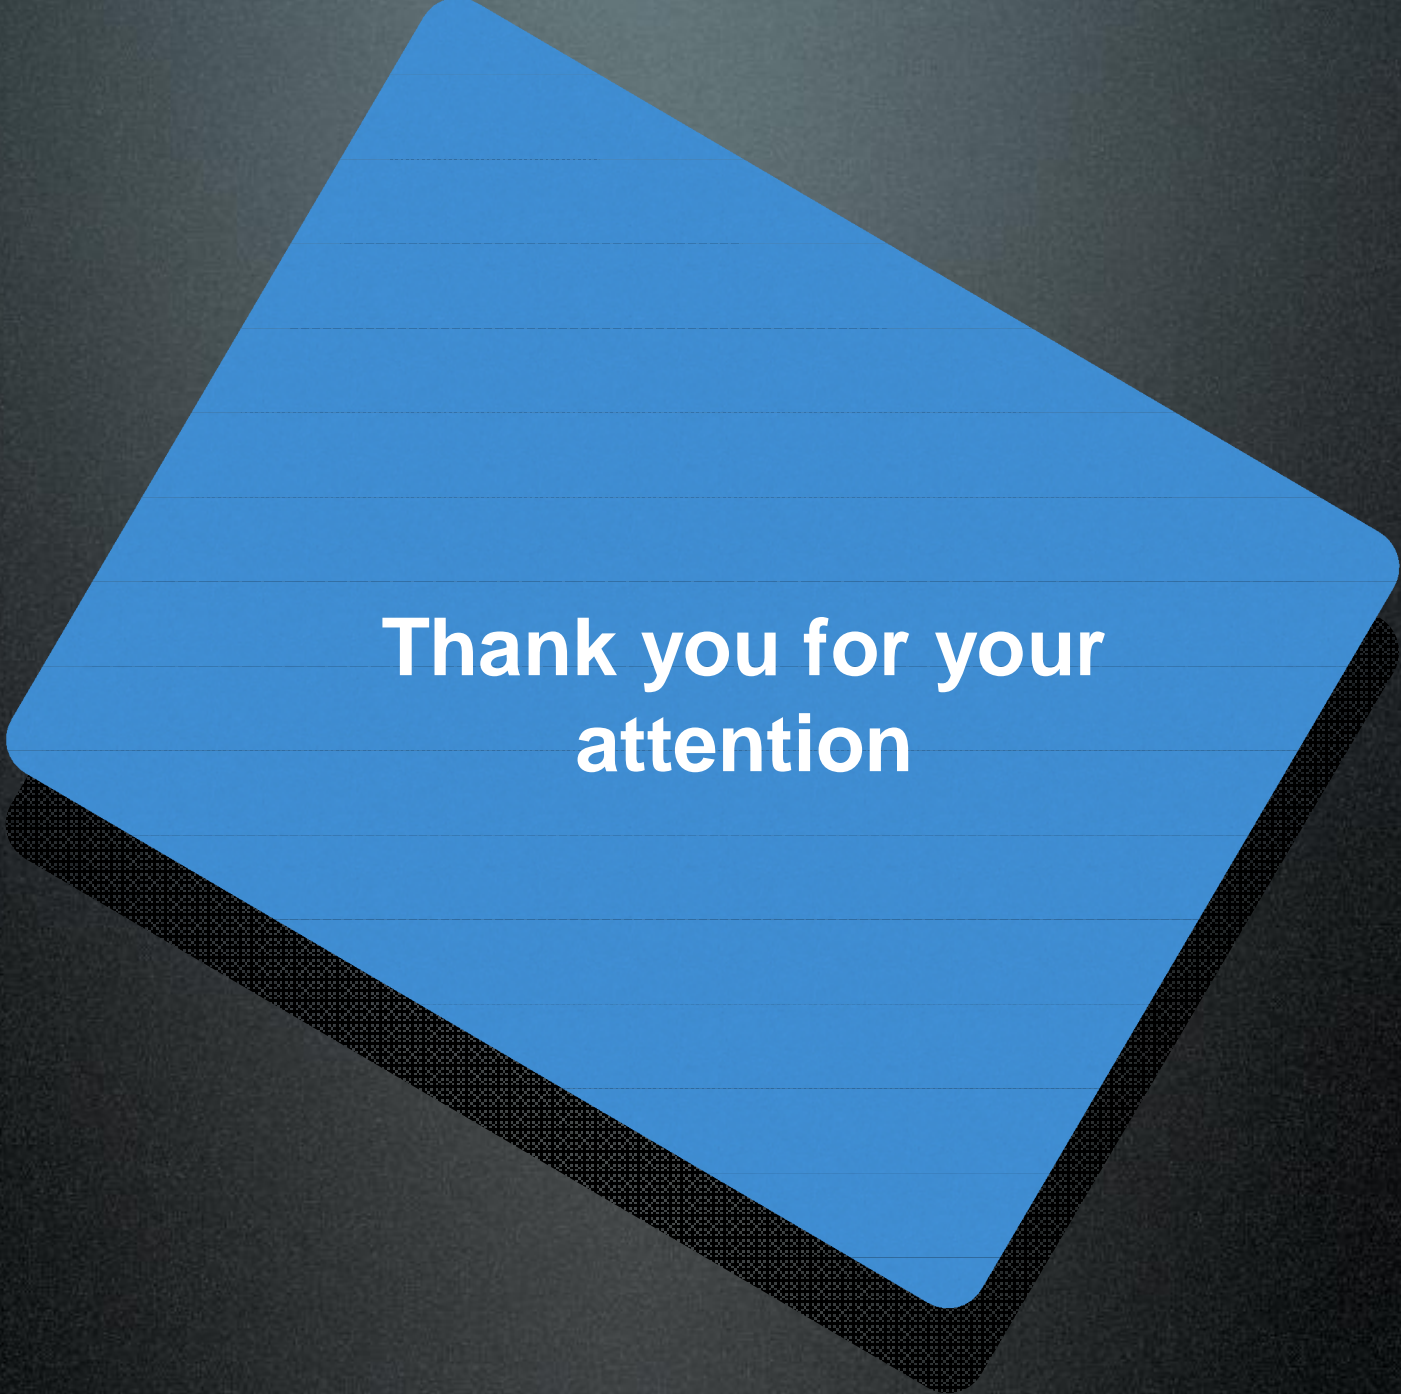

BICC

demob we on R&R

study & support

other int.org

other int.org

Thank you for your attention